Mayor Sanford Allows Their Salary Up to Jan. 20.

LONG ISLAND CITY, Feb. 1 .- Andrew J. Kraussmann, President of the Gleason Board of Police Commissioners, was the first applicant this morning to appear before Mayor Sanford and ask for a warrant for his salary for the past mont ...

Mayor Sanford told Mr. Kraussmann that there was no warrant for him, and that if he didn't stop parading as a Pelice Commissioner he would have him accested.

William Feth, another Gleason man, and wife, was also held as a witness against him. | could not get possession of its rooms in the City Hall.

Mayor Sanford said he recognized Feth as clerk, but said he could not give him a warrant for his pay, as the fund for that purpose was exhausted. Mayor sanford said he also recognized Patrick McKeon and Louis Waiters as citizen members of the Health Board, and as holdovers from Mayor Geason's administration. They receive no pay.

Lawyer W. J. Egun, coinset of the Geason Health Board, also applied for his salary, amounting to $150, when Mayor Sanford offered him $83.33 as a compromise.

P. J. Devine, Clerk of the Geason Board of Education, presented a warrant for his salary to Treasurer Bleckwenn, but the latter remosed to honor R. chaining that he did not recognize the Geason Board of Education. The warrant was issued by Dr. P. L. Demorest, Gleason's Superintendent of Schools.

Mayor Sanford said he would pay the Gleason men up to Jan 20, the day that Mayor Gleason was forced ent of the City Hall, and that the Sanford appointers would be paid from that due to the end of the month.

None of the twenty-eight teachers who were suspended yesterday by the Sanford Board of Education appeared at the Schools this morning. Neither were their piaces filed, and as a consequence many of the classes went without teachers to-day. Mayor Sanford relibed to make any statement regarding the removal of these teachers. It is said that the Sunford Board of Education is making efforts to seem on we teachers in place of those who were removed.

The Gleason Board of Education has instructed its cottage to apply to the Supreme court for an order restraining the Sanford Board from tasing any action in the management of the schools until the question is settled as to whether Mayor Gleason's aispointers are entitled to hold over for the next three years. Mayor Sanford said he would pay the Glea-
